

The layout of this garden was driven by the architectural context and the taste and style of the owners. A variety of spaces and functions unfold from the interiors. Planting design is diversified to support or enhance the character of each garden. The homes overriding traditional vernacular is tempered by contemporary elements.

Garden Location

